

REMARKSResponse to Notice of Non-Compliant Amendment

The Notice of Non-Compliant Amendment (hereafter "Notice") states that the amendment document filed January 3, 2005 is considered non-compliant because it failed to meet the requirements of 37 C.F.R. §1.121. Specifically, the Notice states that a complete listing of all of the claims is not present because claims 10 and 11 are omitted. The Notice further states that the corrected section of the non-compliant amendment document must be resubmitted in its entirety.

Applicants have provided a complete listing of the claims, including claims 10 and 11. Applicants respectfully request that the claims be entered in the above-identified application.

Conclusion

Applicants request that the Examiner enter the above amendment, and allow the claims to pass to issue. Should the Examiner deem expedient a telephone discussion to further the prosecution of the above application, applicants request that the Examiner contact the undersigned.

Respectfully submitted,
